

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We respectfully acknowledge that it was a great privilege to have this conference and engage in learning and unlearning on this important topic on the ancestral and unceded lands of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations of British Columbia.

This conference would not have been possible without financial support from the Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies, the Dr. Hari Sharma Foundation, and the David Lam Centre. We particularly thank Dr. Lara Campbell (Professor and Chair, GSWS), Dr. Chinmoy Banerjee (Professor Emeritus, English), and Dr. Michael Hathaway (Associate Professor, Sociology/Anthropology) for their unequivocal support for the conference.

We would also like to acknowledge the time and commitment of Dr. Charles Greenberg of Capilano University, Dr. Sarika Bose of the University of British Columbia, and Neena Randhawa of Chimo Community Services in Richmond for chairing various sessions. Dr. Rebecca Scott Yoshizawa of the Kwantlan Polytechnic University organized and chaired a panel presentation that ignited the light of the spirit of this conference. Our heartfelt thanks go to Dr. Yoshizawa for her generosity, time, and efforts. Further, we are thankful to Somayeh Bahrami, Veronica Sudesh, and other GSWS graduate students who volunteered their time and energy to the conference.

As organizers, our heartfelt appreciation goes to Harsha Walia for her very inspiring keynote speech, which captivated the audience. We thank her for allowing us to print the speech. Our presenters, who were mostly young and beginners, did a terrific job in managing time and using PowerPoint for brief presentations. We thank all presenters, especially those who submitted written papers for the proceedings. Both of us express our sincere gratitude to Mazhar Haque for diligently recording the presentations and editing the videos for YouTube. Thanks to Mazhar for generously volunteering a huge amount of his time. Further, we thank GSWS Library Liaison Moninder Lalli and SFU Burnaby Campus Library staff for making the digitized copy of the Conference Proceedings available for the wider community. We also thank Andar Wårje for superb editorial services.

Our appreciations also go to Dr. Anne Murphy and Dr. Sara Schneiderman, Co-Directors of the Centre for India and South Asia Research, University of British Columbia, for supporting us in a number of ways. We sincerely acknowledge the time, generous support, and passion of GSWS Manager Roberta Neilson; without her commitment, we would not be able to organize the conference or publish the proceedings within such a tight budget. Many thanks to Roberta. Habiba especially acknowledges Dr. Sanzida Habib for formatting the manuscript and for her rigorous scrutiny during each phase of the publication process. Sanzida wants to thank Dr. Habiba Zaman for the vision, endless enthusiasm, and painstaking labor she provided throughout the entire project. Finally, we thankfully acknowledge the unconditional support of our spouses: Mohammad Zaman and Mazhar Haque. Any remaining errors are the sole responsibility of the authors and the editors.
